

Thursday, August 26, 2010

Frankfort State Capitol

VOTES for WOMEN Celebration

... 90 YEARS and COUNTING!

Schedule of Events

- 10:30 a.m. Press Conference- Capitol Rotunda (or outside on the front steps)

Governor Beshear will issue a Proclamation celebrating passage of the 19TH Amendment. We will also announce the kick-off of "The Kentucky Women's History Project" ...a joint 10 year effort of the Commission on Women and the Kentucky Historical Society dedicated to gathering, studying and preserving the history of the women's movement toward equal rights in Kentucky. The areas of focus will be suffrage, political participation, contributions of women of color, clubs and organizations, and expanded participation.

- 11:00 a.m. LET'S MAKE SOME NOISE AND CELEBRATE THE POWER OF OUR VOTE!!

Join us for an old fashioned "Votes for Women" RALLY!

Wear white! (as the suffragettes did, period or modern). Commemorative purple sashes will be available for $6.00 ea. (See insert to pre-order) Music... speeches... and lots & lots of wonderful women!

P.S. If you've got one, wear your grandmother's suffrage hat!

- 12 noon - 2:00 p.m. "Meet" Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Sojourner Truth, and Laura Clay! Hear their stories and stir your passion!

Drive or take a free shuttle to the Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History (3-5min away from the Capitol), grab a box lunch, and mingle with the mothers of the suffrage movement. Leave with a renewed sense of commitment to stay involved in the political process. Our vote equals our voice!